Abstract

This is the guideline and template of extended abstracts (Technical Digest Manuscript) for PowerMEMS 2019. When uploading the Technical Digest Manuscript to our website, you will be asked to indicate the SubID in which the accepted abstract was registered. The SubID consist of 11 numbers and it was given in Notification of submission acceptance e-mail.

Please insert the SubID number in the right-top corner, underline the presenting author and make sure that the e-mail address, regular mail address, telephone number, and fax number of the corresponding author are provided at the end of the Technical Digest Manuscript.

The title of Technical Digest Manuscript must be the same as in the accepted abstract.

In the first paragraph, please describe your major achievements and present the summary of your contribution in a nutshell.

Your title of paragraph one

The motivation and results of your research must be clearly identified and the novelty or progress made compared to the state of the art has to be provided.

The total length of the Technical Digest Manuscript including summary and references should not shorter than three pages. Please illustrate your approach and representative results by referring to figures (Fig. 1) and tables (Table 1).

Fig. 1. We suggest using tables for convenient formatting of figures and figure's description. After inserting figure and description, in the table options select 'without edges'. The drawing should be centered, the description of the drawing formatted to the left.

Please make sure that the resolution of the figures is sufficient. Please make sure that the pdf file can be opened without any problem by the latest English-version Acrobat Reader. Photographs and pictures must be of impeccable grey-scale quality. For color pictures make sure that the quality will be sufficient in gray-scale printing.

Your title of paragraph two

The Technical Digest Manuscript must be submitted via the website (www.powermems2019.org) no later than October 14, 2019. Instructions on uploading the file are indicated on the website. The Technical Digest Manuscript must be converted to pdf format, prior to uploading. The total file size cannot exceed 1 MB. Please make sure that the pdf file can be opened without any problem by the latest English-version Acrobat Reader. To avoid font problems and make your abstract easy to read, it is recommended to use text formatting described in Table 1.

The use of bold formatting in the main text is not recommended.

The paper size is "A4" i.e. 210 mm (width) by 297 mm (height).
